FAMILY PICNIC LAST WEEK

Hats off to Mary Jane Elkins & Tommy Zincone for providing the Rotarians and their spouses a very enjoyable Family Picnic. A great time was had by all in Mary Jane's Chicken House. The barbecued chicken, baked beans, cole slaw, bean salad, and an assortment of desserts were all delicious. We had a total of 54 in attendance.

SELL THOSE CASINO TICKETS

In less than a month, we will be having our first Casino Night. This is a major project and fundraiser. Members of the Casino Night Committee have been working extremely hard putting this event together. We have some terrific major prizes and door prizes that will be given away at the event. It is scheduled for Saturday, November 1st at the Woodfield Club. It is absolutely imperative that you get out and sell those tickets. We only have 250 tickets to sell and if we sell them, our club will make some major money for our Scholarship Fund. If you need additional tickets, please see Randy Cash.
